SECOND $1 MILLION PRIZE CLAIMED IN NEWLY INTRODUCED $500,000,000 BLOCKBUSTER GAME

(AUSTIN) – Introduced May 18, the $500,000,000 Blockbuster scratch-off game has already awarded a second prize of $1 million. Jeffrey A. Fugitt of Cedar Park claimed his prize Tuesday at the Texas Lottery® Claim Center in Austin.

“The $500,000,000 Blockbuster is causing quite a bit of excitement,” said Texas Lottery Commission Deputy Executive Director Gary Grief. “With 40 prizes of $1 million and ten prizes of $2.5 million, it stands to reason that we will continue to see players claiming large prizes in the coming weeks.”

The claimant requested minimal publicity.

The winning ticket was sold by the 7-Eleven Conv Store #26353 located at 601 W. Ben White Blvd. in Austin. For selling the winning ticket, the retailer is eligible for a $10,000 retailer bonus.

Tonight’s Lotto Texas® jackpot is worth an estimated $9 million. Friday’s Mega Millions® jackpot is worth an estimated $35 million.
