Gov. Perry Appoints Reyes to Texas Lottery Commission

AUSTIN – Gov. Rick Perry appointed Fernando Reyes Jr. of San Antonio to the Texas Lottery Commission for a term to expire Feb. 1, 2011. The commission oversees the Texas Lottery and ensures that lottery and bingo games are conducted in a legal and fair manner.

Reyes is president of Reyes Industries Inc. and Reyes Automotive Group. He is also a past appointee to the Texas Workers' Compensation Insurance Fund Board and the Texas Skills Standard Board. Reyes is chairman of the San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, commissioner of the San Antonio Fiesta Commission and the 2008 San Antonio Rey Feo. Additionally, he is a board member of the Christus Santa Rosa Hospital, San Antonio Parks Foundation, and St. Mary's University.

Reyes received a bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at Arlington and a master's degree from the University of Southern California.
